5 The trustee filed an Application for a 2004 Order Requiring Production of 6 Documents from Keywest Financial, LLC. (docket #131). The motion had attached as an
7 exhibit a letter from Keywest representative Sharon McKinley.

8 Pursuant to Court order dated March 29, 2011 Keywest Financial, LLC was ordered
9 to produce documentation to the Trustee regarding this transaction. Docket #133.
10

11 The Motion , order and subpoena were served on Keywest Financial on March 30,
12 2011. Moewes Declaration, Exhibit "3"

13 The order required Keywest to produce documentation to the Trustee no later than 14 April 13, 2011. To date no documents have been produced to the trustee.
15

16 WHEREFORE, the Chapter 7 Trustee requests that the Court enter an order
17 providing that Sharon McKinley and/or another representative of Keywest Financial shall 18 appear before the Court at a hearing on October 7, 2011 at 9:30 a.m. to show cause, if 19 there be any, why they should not be held in civil contempt for failing to comply with the

1 A. The Bankruptcy Court's Contempt Authority.

2 Civil contempt is a refusal to do an act the court has ordered for the benefit of a
3 party. Bingman v. Ward, 100 F.3d 653, 655 (9th Cir. 1996), cert. denied, 117 S. Ct. 1473
4 (1997). The Ninth Circuit has made it clear that bankruptcy courts are imbued with civil
5 contempt powers which gives them the ability to sanction parties where appropriate.
6 Caldwell v. Unified Capital Corp., (In re Rainbow Magazine, Inc.), 77 F.3d 278, 284-85 (9th
7 Cir. 1996). In the present case the debtor's principal and accountant are in contempt as a
8 result of their failure to produce any documents to the Trustee, despite the existence of a
9 2004 Order which specifically set forth what documents were to be produced.
10

11 B. Elements of Proof.

12 In order to prevail on his motion for contempt on the basis of civil contempt the 13 Trustee "has the burden of showing by clear and convincing evidence that the contemnors
14 violated a specific and definite order of the court. The burden then shifts to the contemnors
15 to demonstrate why they were unable to comply." In re Bennett, 298 F.3d 1059, 1069 (9th
16 Cir 2002) quoting F.T.C. v. Affordable Media, 179 F.3d 1228, 1239 (9th Cir. 1999).
17

18 In the present case the Court order required only one action from Keywest
19 Financial - the production of documents by a certain date and time. The 2004 Order is 20 clear about the date and time of production of documents. Keywest Financial, LLC has 21 failed to comply with the 2004 Order.

22 C. Remedy Requested.

23 Once the Court concludes that Keywest Financial, LLC has committed civil
24 contempt, it must determine an appropriate remedy. Civil contempt sanctions can serve 25 two purposes: "to coerce the defendant into compliance with the court's order, and to 26 compensate the complainant for losses sustained." Whittaker Corp. v. Execuair Corp., 953
27 F.2d 510, 517 (9th Cir. 1992).
28

1 In the present case the Trustee seeks compliance with the 2004 Order as well as
2 $750 for preparing this various motion and order compelling compliance with the 2004
3 Order.

4 The Trustee requests that this Court grant the relief set forth above.

5 Dated this 16th day of September, 2011.
